LOCATION

The hub (national centre for craft & design)

The Carre Gallery is located in Sleaford town centre opposite the entrance to Navigation Yard and the Hub in Carre Street, Sleaford. The Hub is England's National Crafts & Design Centre.

All town centre car parks are within easy walking distance.

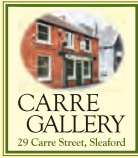

The Carre Gallery has three exhibition rooms for use by Lincolnshire and visiting artists and is operated by the Sleaford Gallery Arts Trust Ltd, a charitable company.

EXHIBITIONS

The Carre Gallery is available for the exclusive use of exhibitors whose work is compatible with the objectives of the Sleaford Gallery Arts Trust. Preferred exhibits will include:-

- Work by Lincolnshire and visiting artists of a recognised high standard
- Experimental and original forms of two-dimensional art
- Appropriately-presented work by young artists
- Photographic work of a recognised high standard

THE GALLERY

The gallery display area extends to three ground floor rooms, two of which have prominent frontage to Carre Street, visible from Navigation House.

Lighting is both natural and artificial. The accommodation is centrally-heated and includes a kitchen, lavatories, store and studio.

Details of current and forthcoming exhibitions together with Booking Forms and other Gallery publications can be downloaded from the Gallery website:
